RESTIGOUCHE IN A DRIVE

HILDRETH'S CRACK, AFTER A LONG RETIREMENT, RACES IN BRILLIANT FORM.

Glennadeane and Cotytto Win for Spreckels and Please and The Peer for Pat Dunne.

San Francisco, Cal., April 10.—S. C. Hildreth's great pair, King James and Restigouche, were scheduled to start in the McGrath Handicap at Oakland today. This was a potent magnet of attraction and 10,000 racing devotees visited the beautiful and park-like race course. There were many expressions of regret over its probable passing by the way. King James, one of the best race horses ever seen in California, was withdrawn to the keen disappointment of the expectant visitors. This left Restigouche to represent his stable and he made good from Rose Queen in a terrific and spectacular struggle. Jockey Burns employed effective fouling tactics and leg-locked his opponent at the finish. Deverich's complaint to the stewards was ignored. With the diminutive pony express, Booger Red, it was a case of the pitcher going to the well once too often, as he failed lamentably. This race climaxed a high-class afternoon's sport.

Adolph Spreckels' big racing establishment was represented by two winners of superior class, Glennadeane and Cotytto. Gross, the stable jockey, rode the brilliant pair.

Jockey Ross also won a brace of victories for Pat Dunne on Please and The Peer. The latter was advanced by L. F. King from $900 to $1,500 in one bid and bought in by his owner with the customary $5 advance. This episode indicates the strength of the thoroughbred market hereabouts.

F. A. Forsythe has announced the sale next Thursday of ten two-year-olds. Butch Fisher will dispose of Andrew B. Cook and Belle Kinney on the same day. On Friday, W. O'B. Macdonough sells ten head.

S. C. Hildreth's protest in the case of the recent claiming of his horse, Tony Faust, out of a race by the Oakland stable on the ground of irregular registration of ownership was dismissed by the stewards today.

Thomas H. Williams' dispersal sale of race horses in training took place in the paddock before the races today. Twenty-five head were sold for a total of $12,595. Those that brought $500 and over were: Bellwether, $2,600, W. Walker; Firestone, $1,800, S. C. Hildreth; Rubia Granda, $1,750, A. S. Patterson; Tom Hayward, $875, H. G. Bedwell; Old Mexico, $800, Mrs. W. C. Vivell; El Picaro, $725, J. McCarthy; Roalta, $550, W. J. Jenkins; Apto Oro, $500, J. McCarthy.

The prices brought by respectively Bellwether and Firestone created much surprise. The former was considered a dear bought horse at $2,600, while Firestone was thought a gift at $1,800 in comparison. On the whole, the prices obtained were unexpectedly good.

Jockey McBride was fined $50 by the starter for misbehavior at the post.

OLD CLOTEN DIES IN CANADA.

Toronto, Ont., April 10.—The well-known performer, Cloten, owned by Sol Mintz, of Hamilton, was destroyed Thursday, having broken a leg by a fall. He was imported some years ago by Mr. Seagram and won many races for him and subsequently for Messrs. Kean and Crew.

His racing record in England, Canada and the United States was as follows:

Cloten, ch. g. (1900), by Hazelhatch—Cymbeline.

Year.	Age.	Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	Won.
1902*	2	7	2	0	0	5	$ 1,905
1903*	3	9	1	1	1	6	675
1904	4	19	3	4	1	11	3,625
1905	5	16	2	3	3	8	1,670
1906	6	5	0	2	1	2	225
1907	7	17	5	5	2	7	2,000
Totals (6)		73	13	13	8	39	$10,100

*1902 in England; 1903, six races and $625 in England.

Cloten was bred and raced as a gelding for a season and a half by Lionel Robinson, of England, and then sold to J. E. Seagram, for whom he raced in his three and four-year-old form in this country and Canada. Cloten's English racing was fair. He won his first two races, the Rookery Stakes at Sandown, and St. Margaret Stakes at Kempton, for Mr. Robinson and as a three-year-old he took the Earlsfield Handicap at Hurst Park and was second in the Croxteth Plate at Liverpool before his sale. Hazelhatch, Cloten's sire, was a Hermit horse and Cymbeline, his dam, by Cambello. Cloten was not able to get to the races last year.

STAKES FOR WINDSOR'S SUMMER MEETING.

The Highland Park Club makes announcement of a list of well endowed stakes for its summer meeting at Windsor, entries to which are to close at midnight of Saturday, May 1. The present offering is one of seven events, the list being:

The Frontier Handicap, three-year-olds and over, value $2,000; 1 1-8 miles.

Pontchartrain Selling Stakes, three-year-olds and over, value $1,200; 3-4 mile.

Windsor Selling Stakes, three-year-olds and over, value $1,500; 1 1-4 miles.

D., B. I. & Windsor Ferry Co. Handicap, three-year-olds and over, value $1,500; 1 mile.

Essex Handicap, two-year-olds, value $1,500; 5-8 mile.

Ontario Handicap, two-year-old fillies, value $1,200; 5-8 mile.

Detroit Stakes, two-year-olds, value $1,200; 5 1-2 furlongs.

The conditions of these stakes are fully presented in the advertising department of this issue and are commended to the consideration of owners and trainers. Windsor is a pleasant and popular racing point and entries should be forthcoming at once and abundantly. The Windsor meeting will begin July 31 and terminate August 21. The purse program will be liberal with none of less value than $400 offered.

GOSSIP OF THE KENTUCKY REGION.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.—William Shelley, of Louisville, who was chosen by the directors of the Kentucky Association for the office of racing secretary for the spring meeting, arrived in Lexington Monday and has put in a busy week at the old track. Shelley is well known here and is popular.

"I had heard that there was an unusually large percentage of really good two-year-olds and three-year-olds here," said Secretary Shelley yesterday, "but I did not expect to find as many as there are. As I visited barn after barn I was more and more impressed with the general good health and condition of the horses here."

Among those who have made applications for stable room are W. F. Schulte, 10 horses; Lon Johnson, for Louis A. Cella, 10; William Steuve, 3; John Marklein, 6; Robert Tucker, 3; P. M. Civill, 5; John S. Ward, 3. There will be others now quartered at Louisville and Latonia. A few may come up from the south and some of the horses coming east from California may drop in here.

Superintendent James Ross has the track in the best possible condition. He spends a portion of each afternoon schooling two-year-olds at the barrier and the probabilities are that the starter—Jake Holtman in all probability—will have an orderly lot of youngsters to deal with when racing time comes.

The most recent arrivals at the track are six horses belonging to Talbot Bros., of Paris. Heretofore Hart Talbot has traveled each season with the horses in the capacity of trainer. This year the brothers decided to turn out all of their two-year-olds and place their six older horses, two in the hands of each of three trainers. Howard Oots has Estradia and McCarney; S. K. Hughes will train Aquia and Kilvany, and J. P. Ross will have Tannie and Stafford.

Luther Dickerson, who has been at Santa Anita Park all winter training the youngter division of Phil T. Chinn's stable, arrived home a day or two ago and will rest up until the Canadian season opens. He says the Chinn stable will be shipped direct from Los Angeles to Toronto and will race in Canada all summer. Chinn will come to Kentucky himself for a visit to the farm near Harrodsburg before the Toronto meeting opens.

A mare that is coming from California to go into the stud at Charles W. Moore's Mere Hill Farm, is the speedy Sanfara, six years old, by Ingoldsby, out of Sankara. Mr. Moore bred this mare and when he heard that she had been bought out of the R. F. Carman sale by Joe James and that she had broken down so that she would require a long let-up in training, he wrote to James asking a price on her for the stud. The purchase was made by wire a day or two ago and Sanfara will be bred to McGee when she arrives. Edward Corrigan has booked California, the dam of Anne McGee, to McGee.

Sanford Lyne has received a cablegram from his son, Lucien, the jockey, who is now riding in Belgium, requesting that a certificate of his birth be forwarded at once to him at Brussels. Lucien was born at the Lyne farm in Jessamine County in 1884, but at that time there was no law in Kentucky requiring the registration of births at the county seats, so there is no courthouse record of the event. Mr. and Mrs. Lyne, however, went before a notary publics and made affidavit that Lucien is their son and gave the date and place of his birth.

JOCKEY EDDIE DUGAN'S CASE.

New York, April 10.—Eddie Dugan said yesterday that he will not return to England, but will resume riding in this country when the Baltimore meeting begins. He says that he saw one week's racing in England. Of the jockeys whom he saw he most admired Frank Wootton, the Australian, who rides in American style. Some jockeys of repute he did not admire because of their style. Contrary to general belief, Dugan holds a Jockey Club license, issued on January 14, but since that date he twice was suspended in California for rough riding. A Jockey Club steward said yesterday that there is no reason why Dugan should not ride in this country, despite the English Jockey Club's denial of his license. The boy will, however, not be entitled to the $15,000 salary which he would have earned if he could have ridden in England. That contract was based upon the use of the jockey for English racing, where the stakes are so valuable as to warrant the high retaining fee.

DEEMS NEW ORLEANS RACING DEAD.

New Orleans, La., April 10.—"In my opinion there will be no racing here next year, nor will there be any attempt to operate either of the big tracks until the general public shows that they want racing here."

This is the opinion of John Hachmeister, formerly connected with the Fair Grounds track and generally known as the financial agent of the Cella brothers. Mr. Hachmeister has been fishing over near Mobile, and he came over to see J. B. Harrison, who is seriously ill. Continuing, he said:

"The state's highest court has ruled that the Locke law is valid, and we will abide by it and make no attempt at racing. I believe that a short racing season with races of the highest class would be a big attraction for New Orleans."

Mr. Hachmeister emphasized "short season." He added: "Possibly racing was overdone here."

DAM OF YANKEE CONSUL DIES.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.—Lady Inez, dam of Yankee Consul and Miss Inez, by Spendthrift—Longitude, was found dead in her stall at the farm of Young Bros. near Christiansburg, Monday.

W. H. Fizer has engaged stable room at the local track for fifteen horses and will come here from Louisville next week.

Secretary Shelley of the Kentucky Association went to Louisville this afternoon to interview the horsemen at Churchill Downs for the purpose of getting a better line on who will ship here from the Falls City.

Biturica, dam of Maskette, has a black filly by Peter Pan at James R. Keene's Castleton Stud. It was foaled Wednesday.

Woodford Clay said today that he will not ship his stable east until after the Louisville meeting. He will race here and then go to Louisville.

JUAREZ TRACK CONSTRUCTION PLANS.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.—Colonel Matt J. Winn says they are ready to begin the construction of the racing plant at Juarez, Mexico, and D. X. Murphy, the Louisville architect and contractor, will leave within a few days for El Paso to take up the work. The plant will be located on the Mexican bank of the Rio Grande River and will not be more than twenty minutes ride from the heart of El Paso. The site is level and very little grading will be required. The idea is to make the buildings as nearly fire proof as possible, so the grandstand will have a steel frame and concrete under structure and the stables will be of adobe, or sun-dried brick, and a favorite native building material. Colonel Winn is enthusiastic concerning the racing venture in Mexico and believes that the sport has a great future in Mexico.

EARNINGS OF THE THIRTY LEADING HORSES OF THE PRESENT YEAR

Now that stake racing in California is over, the financial status of the leading winners among the horses of the year is not likely to be changed materially until the time for running stake races in Canada, the east and the middle west arrives. Then some new factors will come into the list. As matters now stand, King James is off by himself with $22,810 to his credit and it will be some time before any other horse can win enough to threaten his leadership. Quite as distinctly in the lead of the three-year-olds is High Private, and Flying Squirrel's supremacy among the two-year-olds is almost as emphatic. The sturdy stayer, Nadzu, is well up in the winning list because of his gallantly-earned success in the Thornton Stakes. Jack Atkin was not lucky in California racing and his $3,250 is hardly the return expected from the speed of this splendid son of Sain. The earnings of the thirty leaders of 1909 up to last Friday were as follows:

JOE THOMPSON'S BETTING OPERATIONS.

For clearness of intellect, businesslike acumen and energy, Joe Thompson, the English bookmaker who died on the Island of Madeira last month, was a remarkable man, and, having regard to the magnitude of his business, he deserved to rank with "Leviathan" Davis, who was one of the biggest pencilers of the past generation of racing men.

Joe Thompson started life as a sailor. In a voyage to Australia he was shipwrecked outside Sydney harbor and managed to reach the shore on a cask. He landed at a time when the gold fever was on, and making his way up to the diggings he did very well and laid the foundation of a respectable fortune.

He later took to the turf and before long became recognized as one of the foremost operators in Australia. Success attended him from the outset and in the course of time he had race horses of his own, some of the most celebrated horses of the time carrying his colors. Among them may be mentioned Argus, Don Juan (probably the best of the lot), Scandal, Romula and King of the Ring, Thompson being at this period himself called "King of the Ring."

After joining the ring in England, Thompson had worked hard for the benefit of the members of Tattersall's, and was responsible for the fifteen-minute rule regarding objections.

He was the originator in England of the mammoth double-event bets on the principal races.

He paid innumerable sums of $50,000 over double events, the largest amount laid in one bet, and lost, being $750,000 to $5,000. About Comedy and Ragimunde he laid a wager of $125,000 to $500. He also lost in the aggregate a sum of $225,000 when La Fleche won the Cambridgeshire, independently of a double, laid to a brother bookmaker, of $50,000 to $200 Burnaby and La Fleche for the Cesarewitch and Cambridgeshire.

Winkfield's Pride, at 200 to 1, was offered a few days before he won the Cambridgeshire. On that occasion Thompson took $1,000 to $50 that the winner was not named in twenty tries. Needless to say, the backer did not include Winkfield's Pride in his twenty horses. Mr. Thompson was a big loser on the race.

In 1894 the late Sir J. B. Maple backed Childwick and Gangway, both of which horses he owned, to win $100,000 with Thompson. After Chidwick had won the Cesarewitch "Joe" asked the baronet if he would like to hedge. "No," said Sir John, "I want a little more on Gangway." "Oh, do you? Well, I will lay you 8,000 to 1,000 to buy some sweet stuff with." When the second race was decided and Gangway was beaten by Indian Queen, "Joe" beckoned to Sir John and sang to him, "Thou art so near and yet so far."

In another instance a backer had a double-event bet with "Joe" to win $50,000, and when the second horse proved successful the backer was so overcome that he fell in a faint. Naturally, a crowd began to gather around him, and on some one calling out "Make room, and let him have air," Thompson quizzically observed, "Send him a wreath."

But Thompson was a great winner over the Cambridgeshire of 1894, as he was in possession of some rare information concerning Indian Queen. On the night preceding the race he went into the subscription rooms at Newmarket after the card had been called over, and not only supported the mare to win the race but also backed her against pretty nearly everything else running.

GALEN BROWN NOW IN FRANCE.

Galen Brown, who for some time has been living in Chicago in quiet retirement from the turf, has gone to France in response to a call from William Duke, and reached Maisons Laffitte a week ago. Duke trains the big stable of W. K. Vanderbilt, and the presumption is that Brown is to be his assistant. He is a skillful man with horses and should made a good impression abroad.

CROKER WILL NOT ABANDON RACING.

Richard Croker, now in New York, has no idea of retiring from British racing. He says, "I have no intention of giving up my stable. Its establishment and management has been my chief occupation for many years, and I have taken too deep a pleasure in its development and growth to give it up."

VANDERBILT'S HORSES RUN SECOND TWICE.

Gambaiseuil, by St. Damien—Gracieuse, and Ropolin, by Zingaro—Honor Bound, French-bred horses, owned by W. K. Vanderbilt, each got second place in the running on the Parisian course at St. Cloud Thursday. Vanderbilt's Gangachata was another contestant, but was not placed.

YOUTHFUL WINS CANTERING

RACES IN CLOSE COMPANY WITH BOSERRIAN TO THE STRETCH, THEN DRAWS AWAY.

Hooray Takes the Feature Race at Jacksonville—Four Favorites in Front—Many Horses for Lexington.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 10.—Hooray and Belle Scott, running coupled as the Pritchard entry, finished one—two in the feature race, a mile handicap, at Moncreif Park this afternoon. They were heavily backed at a short price and proved easily best. The other attraction, a five-furlongs dash, in which some of the best sprinters on the grounds started, resulted in an easy victory for Youthful. The Dunlop horse showed keen speed and great gameness in the race. He hooked up with Boserrian soon after the start and the pair raced head and heat at a killing pace for a half-mile. After entering the homestretch Boserrian drew away a bit, but in the final furlong Youthful overhauled him and won in a canter. The five furlongs were run in 1:03⅘, which is a track record. The sting of defeat was not the only disappointment that Boserrian's owner, Frank Kessinger, suffered, for after the race his horse was claimed by E. J. Gildersleeve, who was represented by El Dorado. Boserrian cost Gildersleeve $450, and at that figure he was a bargain.

It was a disastrous day for the books, four favorites and a heavily backed second choice winning. Ralph W., which started for the first time in months a few days ago, captured the opening race after leading his opponents all the way. Castlewood, winner of the second race, was made the medium of a "killing." He was backed from 10 to 1 to 13 to 5, and won after a driving finish with Wine Merchant. J. P. Mayberry won his first race in months when his handsome four-year-old, Earl's Court, cantered home in the closing race. Earl's Court has improved wonderfully in looks and is now a perfect type.

Young Reid, Hugh Penny's promising little lightweight, rode three winners during the afternoon. Penny has announced his intention of taking the lad from here to Baltimore at the conclusion of the Moncreif Park meeting. Jockey Brannon also goes from here to Baltimore.

Wayne Lewis will leave for Lexington on Wednesday next with the horses owned by G. W. J. Bissell. On the Saturday following the following stables will also leave for Lexington: H. McCarren, Jr., Dillard Hill, Scott Williams, P. H. Jones, M. Burton, W. H. Robinson, J. U. Strode, N. B. Davis, P. J. Miles, W. V. Casey, G. W. Crowley, W. P. Reed, C. Nolte, I. Cox and Gene Lutz.

LOUIS CAHN RULED OFF AT SANTA ANITA.

Lady Irma Defeats Rialto and Harrigan in a Fast Sprint—Norbitt Wins from Molesey.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 10.—Judge Hamilton ruled Louis Cahn off the grounds of the Santa Anita race track today and warned Benny Jacobs away from the course. The presiding official would give out no reason for this action, but intimated that their cases had been duly investigated. Cahn made all of V. Powers' mounts here and Jacobs did likewise for McGee. P. Knebelkamp has been restored to good standing on the turf.

L. A. Cassidy, acting for Henderson & Hogan, bought Guy Fisher today from Barney Schreiber for $3,500. This good colt will be raced on the Canadian circuit.

P. T. Chinn has sold Go Between to Irving Wheatcroft for $5,000.

The racing today was witnessed by one of the largest crowds of the meeting thus far, and was high class in all particulars.

Twenty books drew in and had much the better of the day's operations, as a number of heavily backed favorites failed to win. The meeting runs but one more week.

The big disappointment of the day was the defeat of Harrigan in the fifth race by Lady Irma. The distance was five and one-half furlongs, with seven of the best sprinters here facing the barrier. To a good start Lady Irma dashed to the front and, setting a dazzling pace throughout, held it to the end, although in the closing strides she was hard pressed by Rialto, which, finishing with rare courage under a hard drive, forced her to the limit to win by a neck. Harrigan, the 9 to 20 favorite, was under a severe drive all of the final eighth and finished gamely with only a neck separating him from Rialto for second place.

The Cesarion Handicap at one and one-eighth miles went to Norbitt, well ridden by Butwell. He led all the way and had speed to spare in the closing strides, winning by one and one-half lengths from Molesey, which, under keen punishment, beat out Vox Populi a head for second place. Edwin T. Fryer finished with a belated rush, just failing to finish in the first three.

Achieve bled badly in the fifth race and was pulled up after showing speed to the stretch.

PLANS OF THE ST. JAMES STABLE.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.—Edwin C. Ruff, private secretary to Irving H. Wheatcroft, has gone to California to direct the shipment of the St. James Stable from Los Angeles to Louisville one week hence. Mr. Wheatcroft will go to his farm on St. James Island, British Columbia, until the latter part of July, when he will visit Woodburn Farm, the home of the St. James Stud, headed by Cesarion and embracing over sixty mares.

While Lew Marion is to continue as trainer of the stable, Mr. Ruff will be the business agent for the establishment. After Louisville it is planned to race at Latonia and then go to Canada. Eight of the horses at Los Angeles will not come east. The two-year-olds, Miguess, Blondale, Cesarinue, Sempronette, King Bee and Stancharm, are to be turned out near Los Angeles and Lotus Eater and Alma Bufour sent to the St. James Island farm. In the string that Marion will bring east are Green Seal, Miss Sain, Elizabeth Harwood, Hasty Agnes, Margaret Randolph, Shirley Rossmore, Anderson, Bye Bye II., St. Elmwood, French Cook, Woolwinder, Maid of Gotham, Alfred the Great and Cesarilass. The latter two are two-year-olds. Alfred the Great is said to be the largest of the young Cesarions on the Pacific coast and his people think much of his racing future. He is out of the good mare, Anecdote. Cesarilass is a filly by Cesarion, out of Marie Stoops, the dam of Penzamarie, Annabelle Lee and Indolent. Starover, another Cesarion colt, now in the hands of John Rodegap at the Kentucky Association course, will join the stable at Louisville after the spring meeting here. Woolwinder is eligible to the Kentucky Derby, but it has not been decided whether or not he will be a starter.

JACK JOYNER WINNING RECOGNITION.

London, April 10.—Joyner is impressing the critics with his ability to get horses fit. Most of his charges seen on the English race courses thus far have been round and sleek-coated, while there are other indications that the Balaton Lodge horses are rapidly coming into form, with a sure prospect of winning many trophies here. The showing of Hillside III. in the race for the Melton Plate Thursday confirmed the growing recognition of these facts. Although the gelding was beaten rather easily, he acquitted himself brilliantly in trying to concede Bedminster seven pounds and proved that if his joints stand the work on firm going he will make things hot for the best English horses. Tyrconnel, too, ran well in the race for the Oadby Plate.

ARAB-AMERICAN HORSE'S EXCELLENCE.

Although never bred to as great an extent in America as in England, many good Arabian horses have been brought over and their influence is very noticeable, especially in the old Morgans. They have also been used at different times to improve almost every type—draught horses, roadsters, etc.

The famous gray charger ridden by General Washington in the Revolution was a son of Ranger, a desert-bred Arab that was imported to New London, Conn., about 1765. In 1837 Commodore Elliott brought in a number of mares and stallions, but, although recorded in Bruce's American Stud Book, their disposition is not noted. Keene Richards also made some notable importations in 1854, but unfortunately practically all were lost in the civil war.

Altogether in the century between 1760 and 1860, forty-two Arab horses and twelve mares are known to have been imported to the United States, including those presented to General Grant by the Sultan of Turkey. Most of the best pure Arabs in the country are related to these. Of late years the greater number of Arabs have come from England insted of direct, though a few breeders have gone to Arabia for them.

The practice of crossing Arabian horses with American thoroughbreds that are used for speed has become quite common of late years, for as a result of too much inbreeding and exaggerated development along racy lines the thoroughbreds have become high-strung animals, in many cases verging on nervous wrecks. At the present time there are several farms in this country which are quite successful in breeding pure Arabs with other horses for various purposes.

It is a mistaken though common opinion that all Arabs are either spotted or white. On the contrary, there are no spotted horses in Arabia, and the only white animals are those that change from the gray in old age. It has been estimated that about 50 per cent. are bays, 30 per cent. grays and 20 per cent. chestnuts, with an occasional black or brown.

One of the ways of telling Arabian blood is by the color of the skin rather than the color of the hair. The skin is always slate color, without the slightest spot of white or any other color.

Arabian horses have been definitely traced back as far as 1635 B. C. to five beautiful mares owned by one Rabiab, a contemporary of King David. These five are the foundation of all our present day Arabs, their progeny having been bred in Arabia, without taint of foreign blood, for over 3,000 years.

While the Arabs have always guarded their horses very carefully to keep the blood pure, and while their ways of rearing have been such as produced a fine and hardy race, their method of selection of individuals for breeding never greatly modified the breed.

Winner—B. c, by Innsbruck—Francesca II. (trained by M. B. Arterbury).
Went to post at 1:50. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Altenberg raced forwardly to the stretch, then closed up fast, overhauling Yankee Tourist when an eighth out and outstaying him in a sharp last sixteenth drive. Yankee Tourist showed the most speed for seven furlongs, but tired in the final sixteenth of a game effort. Guard Rail made up ground rapidly after passing the far turn and outstayed Roy Junior in a sharp last seventy-five yards drive. The latter tired in the closing strides. Signor went well for five furlongs. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—Br. g, by Octagon—Lady Violet (trained by R. B. Allen).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Lord of the Forest, easily best, showed a high rate of speed all the way and never left the result in doubt. Black Mate, all but left, ran a cracking good race, made up ground gradually throughout and, finishing fast, easily wore Toller down in the last seventy-five yards. Toller raced forwardly to the final sixteenth and then tired fast. Priceless Jewel finished gamely. Pal showed scant speed. Work and Play quit after turning for home. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—B. c, by Cesarion—Queen Isabella (trained by H. McDaniel).
Went to post at 2:43. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Sir Ashton, easily best, set a stiff pace all the way and was never seriously threatened. Donau was cut off when an eighth out and had to pull around to the outside of the winner, then rallied quickly and finished gamely under the whip. Henderson, in a long stretch drive, finished resolutely. Mike Molett fell away when an eighth out.
Overweights—Mike Molett, 1½ pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Inspector B.—Varnish (trained by W. S. House).
Went to post at 3:05. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Norbitt, best at the weights, raced in front unchallenged to the head of the stretch at a slow pace and came away fast when well straightened out for the finish, easily holding his opponents safe all of the final eighth. Molesey was under keen urging all of the final eighth next to the rail and finished gamely. Vox Populi tired when the pinch came. Edwin T. Fryer finished fast on the outside.

Winner—B. f, by Sempronius—Lady Balgowan (trained by P. T. Chinn).

Went to post at 3:34. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Lady Irma, at her best, dashed into an early lead and, setting a heartbreaking pace throughout, had enough left to withstand Rialto's closing challenge. The latter, outpaced to the stretch, came fast in the final eighth and, finishing gamely under the whip, was gradually overtaking the winner in the closing strides. Harrigan, in a sharp last eighth drive, finished resolutely. Achieve showed speed to the stretch, then bled. The others were always outrun.

Winner—Ch. f, by Charade—Forelock (trained by J. Queen).

Went to post at 4:08. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Ida May ran her usual consistent race, showed the most speed and was never seriously threatened. John Louis made up ground gradually all of the final quarter and finishing gamely. Old Timer was speedy, but tired in the final sixteenth under a weak ride. Adriuche quit after turning for home. The others were always outrun. The winner was entered for $1,100; no bid.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Third Rail followed the leaders closely to the final quarter, where he moved up fast and, finishing gamely, outstayed Albert Star. The latter showed much speed throughout, but found the distance a little too long, tiring when challenged by the winner. First Peep went well for a mile, then tired fast. Winner—B. f, by His Highness—Charm, by Cheviot (trained by F. Hanlon).

Went to post at 1:46. At post 6 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same. Please, after lucky forward pursuit of the pacemakers, drew out right at the end. Giovanni Balerio outbroke and outpaced the others to the final sixteenth and tired. May Amelia, shuffled back in the early running, closed a gap into a fast going, but swerving, third. General Haley, from an inside slow start, was crowded out and made up much ground. Saracinesca was away poorly and messed about. Pimkim, from an inside bad start, steadily improved his position. Minot was never dangerous. Lord Provost, nearly left, closed a gap. Platoon showed superior speed, but failed to stay. A. Muskoday had a bad start. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Overweights—Platoon, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. f, by Solitaire II.—The Peeress (trained by C. W. Carroll).

Went to post at 2:13. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Turret. Won cantering; second and third driving. Glennadeane, a grand filly, rapidly ran around on the extreme outside, then drew out in the stretch and won pulling up. Pretend, forwardly placed from the start, was a game second. Quality Street ran prominently throughout. Salian, crowded out at the start, made up considerable ground. Perry Johnson, from a bad start, was gaining at the end and is promising. Turret, pulled up and left absolutely, closed an immense gap in a wonderful effort and probably was best. Sporting Life had scant chance at the start. Galvesca failed to stay after showing superior speed.

Winner—B. f, by Solitaire II—The Peeress (trained by C. W. Carroll).

Went to post at 2:34. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. Cotytto drew out quickly and won all the way virtually under a pull and far outclassed her opposition. Ocean Shore outbroke the others, but was shuffled rearward repeatedly in the middle running and finished a fast going second. Cressina quickly ran into nearest pursuit to midway of the stretch and quit badly as if short. Rabelais, from a poor start, was forwardly placed for the last six furlongs and finished a close up fourth. Marwood ran well to the stretch and tired.

Scratched—80886 George Kismet, 102; 80475 Louis Streuber, 102.

Winner—B. g, by Free Knight—Stella Perkins (trained by L. O. Lee).

Went to post at 3:01. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second and third driving. Blagg beat the barrier and crossed in front of the others sharply, then set the pace throughout and was lucky. Don Enrique, nearly left, closed an immense gap into a rushing second and may have been best. Husky, forwardly placed from the start, was a fast going third. Gemmell raced forwardly throughout, but tired in the closing drive. Bucolic had no mishaps and finished close up. Anna May ran in early prominence for five furlongs and tired. Fordello, on the inside in close quarters, was never dangerous. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Overweights—Anna May, 3 pounds; Sake, 1.

Winner—Ch. g, by Batten—Countess Irma (trained by F. Hanlon).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. The Peer, away slowly, leisurely improved his position and, challenging in the stretch, outstayed the leaders decisively at the end. Schleswig forced the pace to the last sixteenth before he succumbed. Boggs, after forward pursuit to the stretch, tired in the final strides. Import ran well up to the stretch and tired. Banposal finished well up. Niblick was badly messed about and ran a good race. Rockstone quit badly at the end of six furlongs. Cabin was not ready. The winner, entered for $900, was bid up to $1,500 and bought in.

Winner—Blk. g, by Commando—Dancing Water (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Restigouche palpably outclassed his opposition, was sent along strenuously from the start and overhauled and disposed of the flying Booger Red, then withstood Rose Queen's stretch challenge. The latter, after forward pursuit from the start, challenged gamely in the last furlong and just failed to get up. Booger Red, from a flying start, set the pace fast, but succumbed at the end of three furlongs and was pulled up in the stretch. Desirous, after keen contention to the stretch, quit badly. Little Jane was hopelessly outclassed.

The figures under "Rec." in above entries show the best time made by the horse at the distance, with weight carried, since January 1, 1906. This time is not necessarily made by a winner. It may be the estimated time of a losing performance.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED MONDAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.

LIVERPOOL GRAND NATIONAL WINNER.

Lutteur III. a Remarkable Jumper—Rubio Breaks Down Early in the Race.

London, Eng., April 1.—Rubio, the American gelding which won the Grand National Steeplechase of 1908, never had a chance this year. His forelegs were under suspicion for two weeks before the race, and in it he broke down in his supposedly sound foreleg and fell before completing the first round of the course.

Speaking of the Grand National field after his victory on Lutteur III., George Parfrement, his rider, said: "The Aintree course is the stiffest I have ever been over, and in my opinion Lutteur III. is the only animal in France capable of doing it, although there are some superior to him over smaller obstacles. I have read a lot about the tremendous crowds at Aintree, and I can assure you I have seen nothing like it in France."

Lutteur (Wrestler) III. is owned by James Hennessey, of Cognac brandy fame, and the tabulated pedigree of the French champion jumper may be of interest to American readers. Here it is:

LUTTEUR III., foaled 1904, by

St. Damien	St. Simon	Galopin	Vedette: Voltigeur. Mrs. Ridgway.
			Flying Duchess: Flying Dutchman. Merope.
		St. Angela	King Tom: Harkaway. Pocahontas.
			Adeline: Ion. Little Fairy.
	Distant Shore	Hermit	Newminster: Touchstone. Beeswing.
			Seclusion: Tadmor. Miss Sellon.
		Land's End	Trumpeter: Orlando. Cavatina.
			Far Away: Young Melbourne. Maid of Masham.
Lausanne	Thurio	Tibthorpe	Voltigeur: Voltaire. Martha Lynn.
			Little Agnes: The Cure. Miss Agnes.
		Verona	Orlando: Touchstone. Vulture.
			Iodine: Ion. Sir Hercules mare
	Loretto	Speculum	Vedette: Voltigeur. Mrs. Ridgway.
			Doralice: Orlando. Preserve.
		HappyQueen(1863)	Tournament: Touchstone. HappyQueen(1845)
			The Doe: Melbourne. Actual.

H. Escott of Lewes, under whose care Lutteur III. has been since he arrived in this country, as a jockey never won the Grand National, but was second on Cathal when beaten by Wild Man from Borneo in 1895. Four years later the French mare, Pistache, finished her preparation under his care, but she fell at the fence before the water. She, however, took the Champion Steeplechase on the following afternoon.

The Grand National was established in 1839, and it is interesting to recall that the following were the conditions of the event in the year of its institution: "A sweepstakes of $100 each, with $500 added; 168 pounds each; gentlemen riders; four miles, across country; second to save his stake, but to pay $50 towards the expenses; no rider to open a gate or ride through a gateway, or more than 100 yards along any road, footpath or driftway."

Lutteur III.'s victory was the best performance that any five-year-old has ever accomplished in the National. When Regal and Empress won it, the lowest weight was 140 pounds, while the Frenchman carried 151 pounds and was conceding some of his opponents sixteen pounds and never put a foot wrong throughout the contest.

The veteran sportsman, George Hodgman, who won the Grand National with Emigrant in 1857, witnessed this year's race at Aintree and he has only missed one National in sixty-two years, on which occasion he was seriously ill.

The annual financial meeting of the Jockey Club will be held at Newmarket in May. Captain Laing has given notice of the following motion to be introduced at the meeting: "To add to Rule 47 (a)—In all races confined to apprentices whips shall not be allowed."

Golden Rod, a particularly stylish three-year-old son of Americus, shows more quality that his sire, and is the best-looking horse sent out from Ireland since Velocity.

Friday, March 19, the famous Signorina, dam of the Derby and Oaks winner, Signorinetta, Signorino, and the exceptionally promising Star of Naples, foaled a compact and very strong brown filly by Thrush.

Vigilant writes in the Sportsman of March 31: "From what was seen of Joyner's horses last week, it would appear that they are not as backward in condition as was assumed, and it may not be long ere he is congratulated on training his first winner in this country. That he has a good lot under his charge at Balaton Lodge may be taken for granted, and having made completely satisfactory progress since their arrival in England, it will be strange if they do not provide us with some winners in the near future. As much may likewise be expected of James R. Keene's team trained by Sam Darling at Beckhampton, where are located also the American-bred horses sent over here by Mr. Carroll and Mr. Widener."

During the past year in Germany there were 118 different race meetings, offering 369 days' sport and 2,062 races, for which 11,699 horses ran.

William Leader, the well-known English trainer, died at Newmarket, March 30, aged fifty-eight. His best known horses were James Best's Worcester, and M. R. Lebaudy's Count Schomberg.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Al Koenigsberg has some idea of booking at the Victoria and Vancouver meetings.

D. A. Ross' stable will be campaigned at the Victoria and Vancouver summer meetings.

Aimee C. ruptured a tendon in her last race and will not race again in California this season.

James Gallagher, who will act as assistant starter at the Pimlico meeting, arrived at Baltimore Thursday.

Mose Goldblatt arrived in Chicago Friday on his way to Cincinnati. His stable is on its way to Louisville.

Vic Terry is planning on taking jockey Coburn east to ride on the New York tracks at the close of the California season.

The Pimlico track is in fine condition for the spring meeting and Superintendent Brennan is now busily engaged in preparing the jumps for the cross-country racing.

It is asserted that W. C. Hayes, the gentleman rider, merely superintends the training of G. A. Saportas' horses at Maisons-Laffitte, France, Jameson being the recognized professional trainer.

The horses of Robert Neville have arrived at Pimlico, getting in yesterday from his farm in Upperville, Va., where they were quartered during the winter. Sir Wooster and Garterman are in the lot.

Frank Skinner has accepted the position of presiding judge for the Victoria meeting, offered him by General Manager Robert Leighton. The meeting will be given under the auspices of the Victoria Driving Club.

James R. Keene's Ballot, 129 pounds, is third choice for the Jubilee Handicap at Kempton Park, to be run toward the end of April. He is at 20 to 1. Recent reports from England say that Colin and Ballot are doing regular gallops at Beckhampton under the care of Sam Darling.

Thomas H. Smith has been appointed racing secretary of the Coney Island Jockey Club. He has acted in that capacity for some years, but Cornelius Fellowes' recent resignation as secretary gave the club an opportunity to officially promote "Tommy" Smith. For the present Mr. Schomberg will replace Mr. Fellowes.

"IT'S UP TO YOU."
"If you play the races"—the sooner you decide to do it right—the better for you. My method requires but small capital—is a Big moneymaker and is fully guaranteed. If you can beat them—you "don't" need my method. If they beat you—"you do need it"—for it will make money for you all the year around. Skeptics will receive prompt replies to letters. The best class of horses ever known will run this summer. Easy money if you use my method. Complete instructions sent for Handbook—Poolroom and Track upon receipt of money order $5.

BIGGEST KILLING OF THE SEASON.
Well, boys, this is the week when the bookies will know that Doc Gould sent out another one of his famous long shot sleepers.
My man at the track advised me that he has one under cover now, with which he will put in his finishing touches next Saturday, April 17, as a grand wind-up. It will be as good as 30 to 1 and will tiptoe home as sure as you live.
In order to give everybody a chance to get a slice of this great "Melon Cutting," I will charge only $1.00 instead of $5.00, my regular terms for a guaranteed occasional. You can't afford to miss this. Rush in your subscription and get some easy money.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN
Have discovered a winning system through which to play the races. On account of the high merits of this system it is not for sale, but its results are. Those inclined to bet and profit by following my instructions, which I will give with each horse, at the rate of ten dollars ($10.00) for six winning plays, can do so by applying to me by wire or mail.
